

TAKE THE LANE! CALL FOR STORIES 2024

SMALL SPACES • GREAT PLACES

DATE: May 2 2024, 5-7pm

WHERE: Center for Architecture, 1218 Arch Street Philadelphia, PA 19102

Take the Lane is back! Join us for a happy hour, short presentations, and a celebration of ROW stewardship.

Take the Lane 2024 is dedicated to exploring and celebrating the best practices and innovative strategies that make city streets better places to live.

Strong Pecha Kucha submissions:

- Focus on a specific story or experience.
- Use vivid language and imagery to bring a story to life.
- Explain how a story promotes, celebrates, or informs ROW stewardship.

PROGRAM

Join StreetBoxPHL as we celebrate public spaces in Philadelphia streets. advocates, planners and stewards have been transforming Philadelphia Streets and learning valuable lessons along the way. Take the Lane 2024 provides an opportunity to learn how communities can transform their sidewalks, plazas and parking lanes.

CALL FOR STORIES

Do you have a compelling story to tell about Philadelphia's streets, or placemaking in those streets for a crowd of like minded infrastructure and community development nerds? If so, we want to hear from you! Help us share your successes, your research, and your passion with advocates, practitioners, and fellow ROW champions. We are interested in a wide range of topics related to right-of-way stewardship, including but not limited to:

- Successful pilots, initiatives or projects that improve city streets and neighborhoods
- New public spaces in city streets to be celebrated, copied, or pilloried
- Spot lights on the history of Philly streets

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Submit a short paragraph proposal for your presentation by Jan 26th. Please email your proposal to streetbox@gmail.com with the subject line "Take the Lane PechaKucha."
